SALT.—Salt has been distributed over the earth with a capricious hand. In Catalonia, Spain there is a mountain of Rock Salt, rising to an elevation of six hundred and sixty-three feet above the level of the surrounding soil, with a circumference of about sixteen thousand feet! In Astracan, there are said to be whole mountains composed entirely of Salt. There is a Salt track in Missouri river eighty miles long and forty-five wide! In Virginia, immense under-ground masses are deposited, which, with that out-cropping in hills, would supply the world for many ages. In New York State the innumerable deposits of immense Salt-beds, from which are annually manufactured millions of bushels of Salt, show that sufficient Salt exists in this State also to furnish the world. But, on the other hand, it is so scarce in the interior of Hindostan, as to bring sixty-two cents per pound; and in the West of Thibet, and in Abyssinia, it is so valuable as to pass as money.

A BLUNT JUDGE.—The New Orleans Delta says that Judge Canon is one of the bluntest, most plain spoken, straight-ahead Judges that ever sat upon any bench. The editor says that he happened in the Second District Court, during the trial of a rule to release a man under arrest, on the ground that he was an unfortunate debtor and was only about to leave the State temporarily. The lawyer sustaining the rule to discharge the arrest, made quite a strong speech, dwelling on the hardship of arresting a man merely for debt, and incarcerating him in prison on suspicion of running off, when he had a wife and three children in the city, to attach him to it. He cited the case of Hiley vs. McCorren, lately decided by our Supreme Court, in support of his position. The Judge in deciding the rule said that the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Hiley vs. McCorren was a most stupid one, and he would not regard it. The Judges of that Court, had, no doubt, their political motives in giving so stupid a decision, but he had no such motives. As to the fact of a man having a wife and three children proving his intention to remain here, he could not consider conclusive. He knew men whose chief inducement to run off was, that they had wives and children to support at home. He had known too, men who had wives and children wherever they went, and would, therefore, under the view of the counsel, have as many domicels as they had wives and children. The best way to keep from being arrested, was to keep out of debt. That was his prescription and his judgement.

SHOES, BOOTS AND GAITERS.
A very Extensive Supply.
IN Offering this stock of goods to the inhabitants of Newport and vicinity, I am aware that the satisfaction of making a good bargain is incomplete—it is not realized when the purchaser does not know that he is receiving for his money the very best return. To give, in this case full assurance, I will say, that whilst the above goods are too valuable to allow of being purchased at low prices than other goods in market, I will notwithstanding, sell them at such prices as cannot fail to secure a continuance of that custom which I already have so largely and so liberally received.

Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY-LAW REQUIRED.

STRANGE JUSTICE.—If we may believe all the traditions that are handed down to us, our forefathers had some queer notions and ways of doing things. Tradition says that a very poor looking man was once riding a very fine looking horse through the town of Essex, in Massachusetts, and from the contrast between the horse and its rider, the man was suspected of having stolen him, and he was accordingly arrested and brought before the learned "Squire" of the town; who, after scratching his head for a few moments, sentenced the man to receive twenty lashes, remarking at the same time that if he was guilty, he deserved it, and he was not, it would not hurt him much!

This decision is exactly in keeping with the manner in which tradition saith they used to test witches in Salem. If a person was suspected of being a witch, he or she was thrown into a pond of water, and if they were unable to swim and were drowned, it was a certain evidence that they were not possessed of witchcraft; but, if they did not drown, they were witches, sure, and were accordingly hanged; so that in either case, death was the alternative of all on whom suspicion rested, whether innocent or guilty. We will not vouch for the truth of either of these stories, but they are exactly in keeping with absurdities that were prevalent in some parts of New England a hundred or two years ago.

The anti-Sabbath convention, which was held in Boston last week, has adjourned. We learn from the Post that on the last day the resolutions of Mr. Garrison, offered on Thursday morning,—resolutions going the whole length of declaring that whatever it was right and proper to do on any day it was right and proper to do on the day which, without any just authority, had been set apart as the Christian Sabbath; that to hunt, fish, travel, work in the garden or in the shop, on that day, was lawful and right; that all penal enactments against spending the day in any one of those modes, or according to one's pleasure, were tyrannical, odious, barbarous, unjust, contrary to the doctrine of Christ, were passed by nearly a unanimous vote. Another resolution, declaring that ministers were wolves in sheep's clothing, was also passed. The Post says that Mr. Garrison advocated the passage of a law requiring railroad companies, steamboat and stage owners, to run their cars, boats and coaches, on Sunday, and carry passengers for the bare cost. We don't believe that such a law will be passed.

Abby Folsom was one of the chief speakers, and she was so full of gab that she couldn't hold her tongue after the convention had adjourned, but went around the streets bawling, to the great annoyance of the "city fathers" of Boston, and she had to be locked up in the watch house before she could be made to stop her noise. Abby is a radical "come-outer," and she is down on every one who is not as radical as she is. She is one of the "g'halls."

It is a well known fact, among epicureans, that good oysters are very scarce at this time, and had been for a few weeks past. We were unable to account for this until we saw the cause of it mentioned in the New York Mirror, which attributes this scarcity to the enormous quantity consumed by the Congressional committee at their great supper in New York and Boston.

THE PHILADELPHIA MURDER.—The supposed murderer of Mrs. Rademacher was conveyed to prison with great difficulty, the mob being so excited that it was apprehended they would get him away from the police and do him some violence. Mr. Rademacher is recovering, and just begins to recollect something of the occurrences of Thursday morning. He says that he was awakened by the screams of his wife, and saw a man at the bureau, and saw him go out of the window.

BOILER EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE.—The steam boiler of the Home Print Works, situated near Valley Falls, about five miles from Providence, exploded at a few moments before one o'clock on Tuesday noon, just as the help were returning from their dinner, killing eight persons instantly, and injuring five others—two seriously, so that they are not expected to survive. The building was shattered to pieces, and had this accident occurred while the works were in operation, the lives of about a hundred persons would have been in danger. The names of those killed were Owen Farney, John McClusky, [Irishmen], Thomas Thornton and three of his children, aged from six to ten years, who were playing in the mill; Susan Baker, and Wm. M. Crawford.

The Journal says that the boiler was thrown to a distance of 300 feet. The building was completely torn to pieces. For two thirds of the length the ruins are packed together, although they had been placed on the ground.

It is feared that others, whose names have not been ascertained, have perished, especially as the children of the neighborhood were accustomed to play around the works at noon.

The value of the building and machinery was $30,000, on which there was insurance for $12,000 at the Firemen's Office, in Boston.

The cloth belonged to Chase & Dodge, H. A. Hidden & Co., and William Grosvenor. It was valued at about $11,000, which was fully covered by insurance at the American Office, Providence, Aetna Office, Hartford, and about $3000 at the Manufacturers' Office, Boston.

The Home Print Works are situated between Central Falls and Valley Falls, on both sides of the line, between Attleborough and Cumberland. They were run by Carpenter & Dana. The immediate cause of the accident has not been ascertained.

MEXICAN ITEMS.—The armistice was approved at Queretaro March 4th. Mr. Freaner, bearer of dispatches from Washington, arrived at Vera Cruz on the 11th of March, and went on the same evening to the city of Mexico. In Guadalajara, S. Otero was chosen senator over Gomez Farnes, and the people were in favor of peace. The governors of Jalisco and Zacatecas ask why the treaty is not published; and the State of San Luis refuses obedience to the general government. Oliguibel was still a prisoner to Alvarez. Gen. Cushing was the only member of the court of inquiry present at Puebla up to Feb. 24th, and a letter says that it was believed there that peace would not be ratified. Col. Caldwell's train reached Puebla safely. Official accounts from Chihuahua to Feb. 1st, state that the American force which, in conjunction with the garrison at El Paso, was destined to operate upon the rest of state, is composed of a thousand men, with six pieces of artillery, and corresponding ammunition.

We saw, by the Boston papers, that Professor C. P. Bronson is entertaining the good people of that city, with a course of lectures on Elocution. We listened to a course of lectures, by the Professor, on this subject, about five years since, which were very interesting. He is a perfect master of the science.

MISSING IMMIGRANT SHIP.—The British barque Thalita, sailed from Cork, Ireland, for Boston, on the 5th of November last, with two hundred immigrant passengers—since which time nothing has been heard of her, and there is very little doubt but that she has gone down at sea with her living cargo.

FROM THE WEST INDIES.—Kingston, Jamaica papers to the 26th of February, say the British growing colonies are in deep trouble. The failure of the W. I. Bank was the prominent topic of interest at Barbadoes. The general distress was alleviated by the circumstance that food was unusually plentiful and cheap. The sugar crop there promised well. The accounts from Trinidad are gloomy. The country was drained of pecuniary resources, and trade was very dull. Some cargoes of American provisions are said to have gone away because there was no money to pay for them.

[Correspondence of the News.]

New York, March 28th 1848.

Mr. Editor:

The increase of this city is indeed wonderful, and it is useless to set bounds to its ultimate growth, for the extreme points of the island will probably be its only limits. There are thousands yet alive who will witness it as populous as Paris. Its present population is about half a million, and if it goes on doing in numbers in twenty years, say in 1870, it will contain a million souls. If its onward course is but properly guided, we shall behold it the model city of the world. Elegant mansions for the residences of our merchant princes, are springing up as if by magic, in all the fashionable portions of our city, and it is said they far excel, in correctness of proportion, and elegance of finish, the houses of the aristocracy in the old country. The addition of conservatories to many of them, when supplied with rare exotics and singing birds, form the most attractive portion of the mansion and exhibits a most unmistakable test of the refinement of its inmates. The careworn, weary merchant delights to be refreshed, as he seeks the seclusion of his home, by these simple but beautiful productions of the Creator's hand; and who will pretend to deny their secret, but certain influence, in serving to raise the soul from the grovelling pursuits of earth, through the force of their silent teachings to the paradise on high, where the flowers are perennial, and the songs, are the praises of angels.

Yours Ever, ARTHUR.

CENTRAL AMERICA.—A few days previous to the 25th ult., Mr. Little and Mr. Hudson, the latter the commandant at Bluefield, had been taken prisoners by the Spaniards, and carried into the interior. Some of the English followed by the way of the river St. John Nicaragua, as far as Serapakey, where they were met by about sixty Spaniards who fell upon them. In the melee, a number of the Spaniards, and four Englishmen were killed, and six wounded. It was known at Bluefield, that the prisoners were taken to Leon, and the pursuers still in chase. The British steamer Vixen was about to proceed up the river. The frigate Alarm was off the port. Patrick Walker, of the Mosquito notoriety, agent to the Indian king, and consul general for the British government, was drowned on the 10th February, in the river St. John. He was passenger on board of a boat which came in collision with another, and is supposed to have been knocked overboard as the boats struck.

THE IMPRISONMENT OF SENATOR SOULE.—Senator Soule of Louisiana was committed to prison for twenty-four hours, and condemned to pay a fine of $100, for contempt of Court, by Judge McHenry. The finale to this is told by the New Orleans Mercury:—

A large number of persons, probably fifteen hundred, some of whom were on horseback, assembled this morning and proceeded to the parish prison, about the hour when Mr. Soule's term of imprisonment expired, and as he came forth he was received with cheers and acclamations. The multitude followed his carriage with bands of music, and as they passed the District Court gave three cheers for Soule, and an equal number of groans for Judge McHenry. A meeting of the German Society was held last evening in Charities street, and a resolution was adopted, that, as they deemed the conduct of Judge McHenry toward Mr. Soule unjust and arbitrary, they would pay the $100 fine imposed on him, which was made up by public subscription—a dime only being accepted from each person so as to express the universality of the same sentiment.

NEW YORK CANALS.—The aggregate cost of constructing all the canals in this state thus far, is about $31,000,000. The amount of tolls collected on all the canals, in 1847, was $3,635,380. Deducting all charges against them for superintending and ordinary repairs, and the collection of tolls, the result is, that they are paying more than nine and three tenths per cent. per annum on the capital invested in their construction.

The news of the revolution in France was carried by an Express locomotive from London to Glasgow, 472 miles in 10 hours. The average running time being 52 miles an hour.

The friends of Martin Van Buren, in Philadelphia, have offered him a public dinner, which he declines.

THE COLONIZATION SOCIETY.—The receipts of last month amounted to $4,469, which appears to be an important gain. A vessel is to be despatched from Baltimore for the new republic on the 15th of April; and another from Savannah, during the same month.

Christian colonies, planted on the coast of Africa, seem to afford the only hope that her children will ever be delivered from the scourge of traffic in human flesh. The American Colonization Society has already with its very limited resources, accomplished more, incomparably, than all other agencies for establishing this.

Lord John Bentinck stated in his late speech in Parliament, that in forty years, Great Britain had expended £150,000,000, or seven hundred millions of dollars, in the attempt to suppress the slave trade. The Times estimated the cost at £3,000,000 sterling annually; and the loss of valuable lives as exceeding, for a period of forty years, all her losses in battles and engagements; and to what result? Why, the doubling and trebling the number of slaves which got clear, and an increase of deaths on the passage, owing to the closer stowage of three to one.

"Is the steamer signified, sir?" asked Mrs. Partington at the telegraph station, "Yes'm," replied the clerk, who was busily engaged turning over the leaves of his day book. "Can you tell me," continued she, "if the queen's encroachment has taken place yet?" "Some say she is encroaching all the time," said the clerk, looking pleasantly at the old lady, and evidently pleased with his own smartness. "That isn't possible, responded the venerable dame, "but," said she to herself, "how could he be expected to know about such things? and yet there is no reason why he shouldn't, for all the bars to science, natumy and them things is let down now-a-days, and Nature is shown all undressed, like a poppet show, sixpence a sight! Good morning, sir," said she, as he bowed her out; and as she passed down the stairs, her mind grasping the manifold subjects of the telegraph, queen, and faculties in science, became oblivious in a fog.—Boston Post.

It is stated that John Jacob Astor is very ill, and is not expected to live many days.

Henry Clay will be 71 years old on the 12th of April.

JONES'S SOAP.

Ladies in the country and watering places, see how the sun has burnt your faces! Look at your necks—how yellow, dark with tan! Why, 'twill repulse the love of any man! Those freckles, too, you know they'd quickly fly if Jones's Soap you'd use; come once—do try! It costs but fifty cents, and 1 am told it's worth, aye, doubly worth, its weight in gold. Persons who have had no faith in it, have been astounded at the wonderful effects of Jones—that is, the genuine Jones's Soap—in purifying the skin. For sale by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

Cold Feet are an evidence that the blood is encumbered with morbid humors, which not only render the circulation sluggish and unequal, but prevent a proper supply of the vital fluid to the extremities. Hence coldness of the hands and feet, accompanied with headache, giddiness, and many other unpleasant complaints. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best preventives in the world against Cold Feet, because they not only cleanse the blood from those impurities which are the cause, but they impart an energy to the circulation which carries it with vigor to every part of the system.

Beware of Sugar Coated Counterfeits.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of William Wright on the top label of each box.

The genuine are for sale by C. G. C. HAZARD, No. 89 Thames-st., Sole Agent for Newport; and by Nathan Dennis, Portsmouth; Seabury & Almy, Tiverton Bridge; Arnold Smith, Tiverton Four Corners; H. F. Brown, Little Compton; W. A. Brown, Adamsville. Wholesale at the New England Office, 193, Tremont-st., Boston.

CAUTION.—The public are particularly cautioned against being imposed upon by persons that are selling preparations of Sarsaparilla which they pretend have the same qualities as Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. Since these Bitters have been offered to the public, there have been no less than four different imitations got up by as many different individuals, and sold for the genuine. The good qualities of Brown's Extract of Sarsaparilla and Tomato, or Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters, is already known and appreciated by physicians and the public—particularly by those who have used them for Impurities of the Blood, bad Humors, Scrofulous diseases, Bilious affections, Constiveness, loss of appetite, &c. There has been no medicine sold that has given such general satisfaction. There cannot be the least doubt but this compound is the best alterative now in use. We have abundance of proof of that fact. There have been thousands of cases of impurities of the blood cured by this medicine. Some of them have been truly wonderful, where the patients have been given over as incurable. The above compound is not merely a common extract of Sarsaparilla, but a very strong extract of the best Spanish Sarsaparilla, extracted by an entirely new apparatus, made expressly for the proprietor, and used by no other person in this country. This apparatus ensures the whole medical qualities of this most valuable root.

One of the most important effects of the recent progress of Science is the alliance of Chemistry with Physiology. By which a new and unexpected light has been thrown upon the vital processes of animals. For this we are indebted chiefly to the German and French chemists. We have now a clear understanding of the different action of elements, poisons, and remedial agents, and the long denied theory of the blood being the portion of the system upon which the latter should act, is now a demonstrated truth. The great object, therefore, is to ascertain what remedy will act most directly upon the constituents of the blood when in the act of combination. Experience, observation, and a cloud of witnesses, establish the fact that SAND'S SARSAPARILLA, is at the very head of this class. Cancer, scrofula, salt rheum, erysipelas, leprosy, ringworm, mercurial diseases, suppuration of the glands, swellings of the joints, and all the diseases of the muscles and tissues, together with general debility of the system, yield to this unfailing purifier of the blood—for the blood is the channel through which disease finds its way to the various organs of the body.

Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, 100 Fulton st. N. Y. Sold also by Dr. R. R. Hazard and R. J. Taylor Newport, by J. Russell, Fall River, by C. Dyer, R. J. TAYLOR.

The Lady's Path in Roadway's Soap. I knew my face was Tanned and Freckled, With Pimples, and with Blotches speckled Sunburn and other annoying spots, With Scoury, Morpew and Salt Rheum, Upon my cuticle assumed To reign with full authority. But, ah! my friends, I'll cure them soon, With a soap of a superior quality. Roadway's Chinese Medicated Soap is the name of this precious Soap: It really cures all herein stated—Either Pimples, Blotches, Tan or Spots. The lady hair she spoke the truth, She found the Soap the friend of youth, And beauty now assumes its place, Upon the clear, transparent face, All ye who have upon your skin, Pimples or Blotches, Pustules or Tan, On the neck, the nose, the face or hands, Or if perchance upon your arms—And would possess angelic charms, Fear not to rest your faith and hope In Roadway's Medicated Soap.

A secret which baffles the ingenuity of all who have attempted to analyze its properties. Roadway's Chinese Medicated Soap. The extraordinary effects of this delicious emollient is truly astonishing, for no sooner is Roadway's Soap applied to the surface, than tan, sunburn, pimples, blotches, tetter and other excrescences speedily disappear. It softens, soothes, heals and sweetens the skin, and imparts beauty to the complexion so well who use it. Sold for 2s. for large, and 1s. for small, at 2 Courtland st. N. Y. R. J. TAYLOR, Agent.

WILLIAM NEWTON,
150 Thames Street, Newport Rhode Island, AGENT FOR THE
CANTON & PEKIN TEA COMPANY
Of New York.

THIS Company, although it cannot boast of being "The oldest Tea Establishment in America," does claim to have sold during the two years of its existence, more good, pure, and unmixed Teas, and at lower prices, than any other similar establishment in the United States.
The following is a list of their retail prices, which will be found to be nearly the same as those of similar Companies. The only difference they claim is in the quality of the Teas.

Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.
A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art.
Naught with beauty can compare, With soft, glossy locks of hair; If not endowed with such by nature, Use Phalon's Hair Invigorator.

The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.

The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.

The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which fire the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so - will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and a free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the last period of life.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Invented and prepared by EDWARD PHALON, professor of Wig Making and Hair Cutting, 61 Broadway, New York.

A treatment on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Hair, with directions for preventing baldness, removing dandruff and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair.

Price 50 cents per bottle - large size, $1. For sale wholesale and retail by GORTON ANDERSON, No. 151 Thames-street, Newport, and by J. Balch & Son, 42 South Main-street, Providence, and by druggists and hair dressers generally in Boston

Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

A company organized by the System of Life Insurance known as successful plan in this company.

1. Those in good health, of the proper age, and of sound constitution, will be insured at the lowest rate of premium.

2. The premium, if over $50, can be paid one-fourth in cash, and three-fourths in a secured note at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and subject to assessments if required, or it may be paid weekly, monthly, or quarterly.

3. Annual division of profits in scrip certificates which bear 6 per cent. interest, and if required a loan of two-thirds on the scrip will be made in cash—or the profits can be added to increase the sum insured.

4. No persons are liable beyond the amount of their premiums.

5. Married women may insure the lives of their husbands, secure from any demands of their creditors, if the premium does not exceed $300 per annum.

6. Creditors may insure their debtors; or debtors themselves, for the protection of creditors.

7. An insurance can be made so that the sum insured will be paid on attaining a specified age, or sooner in the event of death.

8. All claims on policies will be paid three months after notice and proof of death.

9. No risk will be taken on any one life exceeding $5000, until the surplus profits amount to $50,000; then the amount of risk on a single life will be gradually extended as the funds of the Company augment.

10. No Director or Officer can obtain a loan of the Company.

11. When the net profits of the Company amount to $200,000, the excess will be applied towards the redemption of Scrip, giving priority to that first issued; but the amount of $200,000, in addition to the reinsurance fund, will be kept as a permanent fund, in which the members have a pro rata interest.

12. The funds of the Company to be invested by the Finance Committee in bonds and first mortgages on unencumbered real estate, the actual value of which is twice the amount loaned—or in stocks of the United States, or of the States of N. York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Maine, or loaned to members on their Scrip.

13. No part of the profits is withheld, or diverted from the assured in any way.

14. There is no stock or loan, either nominal or real, to pay interest for; the company, having ample capital in the premiums received.

15. It enables a man to provide for a wife and children, in such a way, that although he may lose all, they are safe; and all persons, whether married or unmarried, to provide for old age, sickness, and want, as well as for death.

16. It does not reckon the assured a year older than he is—but from six months less, to six months more, so as to equalize the same between all parties.

17. It pays no directors, auditors, or solicitors.

18. A portion of the directors and the officers are chosen yearly, and the members vote according to interest.

19. The assured can surrender the policy at any time after a term of years, and receive its equitable value.

20. Every precaution is taken to prevent a forfeiture of policy.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, is authorized by its charter to make all and every Insurance appertaining to or connected with Life risks, of whatsoever kind or nature, and will grant annuities and make endowments, as by the Act of Incorporation, passed the 30th January, 1815.

The Directors of this Company, deeply impressed with the very great, useful, and growing importance to the community at large of Life Insurance, would call to attention of the public to the following observations and principles, as intended to explain to them its peculiar advantages, and the particular features of this valuable institution. It is seen above how extensive the privileges are, reaching to every risk appertaining to or connected with life; guarding and supporting infancy to old age, in all grades of professions and trades; orphans, widows and their children, by a small annual investment, on the principle of Mutual Benefits, arising from Mutual Insurance, being a self-protective society. In this there is no Money Stock; the funds or capital arise from premiums paid in when persons make insurance, and these form the means to make payments on policies, grant loans, pay expenses, and yield profits. All persons insured become members, but are not liable beyond the amount of the premiums to be paid by them. The books of the company are open to them, to see that the sums paid, or securities received, are deposited or invested according to the charter, and the next profits, at fixed periods, are divided among them, as hereafter explained. The table of figures, and the rules, are made and calculated with accuracy, after the experience and practice of old English companies, and all persons can see by them how much they have to pay, and the gains they will be likely to receive. This plan parties of the Savings Bank and Mutual Interest, affording the security of the one, and gain of the other, and is entirely benevolent in its operation; it also embraces a provision for Married Women to insure the lives of their husbands for any amount, the premium of which shall not exceed $500 per annum, and is secured to them against any demands in law, of creditors.

The greatest portion of society, who by daily exertions in industry earn support, as artisans and mechanics, deriving livelihood from personal labor and skill, seldom resort to Life Insurance, in any numbers, for a future provision for their families, though to none would it be so important as to them, who, by sickness and death, may in a day, leave those nearest and dearest to them in poverty. To men in mercantile pursuits and those in professional business of every rank and class, or those who have uncertain or small incomes, and who are most numerous in wealth in the aggregate and have it in their power to provide against the vicissitudes they are constantly exposed to, Life Insurance is also of the utmost importance; they, and those in lower circumstances, are often deterred from entering into contracts of insurance, as the advantages appear remote—being contingent on death, or ability to pay the premiums.

To assist all such, this Mutual Benefit society so arranges the payment of the premiums, and of returns, in part of the same, as to enable all persons to become members, and enjoy its advantages while living; thus protecting themselves in life, and providing for their families after their death; in this way a short life may obtain, and leave to heirs, the benefit of a long one.

This Company will grant insurances on lives, on the Mutual principle, to applicants upon their own lives, or the lives of others, for the whole duration of life, or for a limited period, at the rates specified in the tables, for sound and healthy persons. Also, any person in sound health may insure $500 for life upon his own or his wife's life, or the wife upon the life of her husband, of the age of thirty years, (and in like proportion for other ages,) by paying 25 cents weekly, or on $1000 by paying 50 cents weekly, the policy always remaining with the Company, with the premiums paid endorsed thereon; and in case of death they will be entitled to the amount thus insured, deducting therefrom the balance remaining of weekly payments, with interest, for the current year. No risk will be taken on a single life for more than $5,000, until the profits of the Company amount to $50,000, after which, according to the profits, the amount will be gradually extended to a sum not exceeding $15,000.

The better to enable all persons to insure, the Company will annually issue Scrip certificates, of estimated profits, bearing interest at 6 per cent.—Whenever the accumulation of net profits of the Company shall exceed the sum of $200,000, the excess may be applied from year to year, or semi-annually thereafter, towards the redemption of each year's certificates of scrip, in whole or in part, as may be determined on by the board of directors, priority to be given to the scrip first issued. The insured may borrow from the Company on his scrip, two thirds of the amount of the same at any time, which will enable him to use a portion of his profits for the payment of his annual premium, even before the redemption of the scrip. All classes of persons will thus be admitted and enabled to meet the premiums, and have the gain of the Savings Bank, with the profit on a large business, by an actual small investment or outlay of money.

All claims for insurance will be paid three months after satisfactory evidence of the death of the persons deceased is exhibited and approved.

Should it at any time be desirable for a person to sell his policy, where it is for life, the Company will purchase the same at an equitable rate.

Parties insured at the table rates of premiums, are not to pass south of the Southern line of Virginia and Kentucky, or east of the Mississippi River, between the first day of June and first day of November; but can visit any part of the United States or Northern British Provinces, between the first of November and first of June. By the payment of an extra premium, insurances can be effected by persons who desire to reside South during the interdicted time.

All persons whose lives are insured by this company, are permitted to travel on any of the regular mail routes, (within the limits prescribed in the policy) or on any of the Northern or Upper Lakes, by steamboat or other common mode of conveyance.

Extra hazardous risks will be taken on persons going out, or residing out of the limits of the policy, and embracing all parts of the world; also on all persons going to sea, and such other risks as may be specially agreed for, being more hazardous, to be expressed in their policies. The extra premiums to be computed upon equitable principles.

Insurances will be made on the lives of Military and Naval Officers, off or on duty, in time of peace, the premium to be settled according to circumstances of climate, locality, &c., as they may be more or less hazardous.

What can better illustrate the wise disposition of the Supreme Being, in the varying term of human life, than the certainty of the general laws that regulate its duration, and the reflections that arise from the contemplation of these laws operating constantly upon the human race? Life Insurance then, as upon the simple fact, that every individual of the human race has, at the period of his birth, a certain term of existence, which he will live through, or what is called the mean duration, or expectation of life at birth.

It is a question how such term of existence, or mean duration, is found. This is done simply by taking the number of years that have been lived through by a party from birth to death, and also of 1000 others born at the same time, and dying at all ages from 1 to 100 years old—the number of years thus lived by each person is added into one sum and being divided by the number of persons, the mean duration of the life of man is ascertained.

If it were found on trial, that on taking the result of the lives of 1,000 or 10,000 individuals, and deducting the mean duration; and then going through the same process with like numbers, and the mean duration of the latter differed widely from the former, it would be to no purpose to follow out experiments; but this is not the fact, and in nothing is the uniformity of the general laws of nature more powerfully exemplified, than in regulating the period of human existence. The result of experience is constant; that two bodies of individuals, each of 1000, living in the same country, and of similar occupations, have each a period of mean duration, which differs only a trifle from that of the other body. Apply this to insurance on life in the same body of persons; they pay a small sum or premium, annually, and the office, or Company, agrees to pay them annually a profit, and a certain sum at the death of each; as, by example, the average expectancy of life is found by experience, to be of a person in health of 25 years, 38 years more; and of 40 years 28 years longer; then by the tables of rates, the first has to pay $20.40-100 a year during his life, to secure, $1000 to be paid to his wife or children after his death; the second pays $32, to insure the same; then taking the gain of interest, and other items, that make up the profits on Mutual Benefit, it is almost certain the amount of $1000 insured will be much increased, when in the end it is to be paid to his heirs, all which is firmly established by the facts of experience. Life Insurance, therefore, on Mutual Benefits, is not a fictitious scheme to draw people into, for money-making purposes. Such an idea, if it exists, is most incorrect, and dissolved at once by the very fact, that this is a Mutual Benefit Company, and consequently any person taking out a policy, becomes a member by a small annual payment, and has a joint interest in its concerns, and a voice in its management.—Founded on scientific principles, exemplified by experience, its real services then to all classes of persons, who are dependent on certain income, or salaries, professions, mechanical skill, or daily labor cannot be denied; and it has proved essentially beneficial to the families of such in event of death, and is therefore an institution ranking among the noblest works of benevolence in the world.

Such being the equitable and beneficial principles on which Mutual Life Insurance is established, it presents a most suitable and favorable means of providing for the endeared and dependent lives of children; for what is the situation of a man, who, for the gratification of his affections, surrounds himself with a wife and child, and lives in the enjoyment of those valued blessings, and knowing that in an instant, the cessation of his life may throw them into a state of destitution! The neglect, then, of such a cheap and certain provision, is gross improvidence; for it is not mere a man's absolute duty, to provide while he lives the daily bread for his family, than it is against leaving them to suffer penurious misery in the event of his death. It is then a religious as well as moral duty, to be easily accomplished by weekly, monthly, or yearly earnings—and this Life Insurance of Mutual Benefits, is the protection against such dreadful evils.

The observations and explanations above made on the principles of Life Insurance generally, and particularly the great and very superior advantages exhibited to the public by insuring in this Mutual Benefit Company; the credit which policies will give to men in trade, the gain it may be to all classes in their business vocations, and the duty of all to provide for their families, should induce every person to give this subject a careful consideration, remembering the injunction of Scripture, that "if any provide not for his own, and especially for them of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

Hyer's Pills.
The American Improved Hygienic Vegetable Medicine.

SAFE, CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE.
This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding sales daily and hourly, after the most approved method of the times; but bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple and to nature in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties.

During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, wholly upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years (till within the past few months—save occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor). The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.

A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed. The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its improved use in many others, (for periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years,) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system. But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or needed here. Ten thousand more assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.

The Good Things of the Season, FOR Parties, Holiday Presents, &c.

WINTER evenings and YOUNG'S Variety Store form pleasant associations for the inhabitants of Newport. There is nothing scarcely that can contribute to the comfort of all, that cannot be obtained at this store, and all as low and a great many much less than can be bought elsewhere in Newport. For example, we will attach the following prices, and every article is warranted.

Western Apples from $1 75 to $2 12 per bbl; shell-barks $2 per bushel; peanuts $1 62 per bushel; chestnuts from four to five dollars per bushel; almonds one shilling per pound; new raisins, figs, dates and currants 12 1/2 cts per pound; we sell these last named articles at wholesale prices. Prunes 20 cts per pound; grapes 25 cts; new citron 28 cts; preserved ginger $1 12 per jar, or 30 cts per pound, in small quantities; candies and all kinds of confectionery cheaper than they have ever been sold at any other store in town, at wholesale and retail, always fresh and of the finest quality; for the truth of this we wish every one to come and judge for themselves.

This is no idle advertisement merely to draw people to my store to disappoint them, but a plain statement of facts, which all may ascertain by calling. Also several kinds of Cough Candy, warranted equal to any now in use, for the cure of all kinds of complaints arising from colds.

Fancy articles and toys of every description, in any quantity, such as silk purses, pocket books, cigar cases, pocket knives, scissors, razors, razor straps, hair, clothes, tooth, and shoe brushes, fancy work boxes, walking canes, dominoes, dice, conversation cards, French and Highland do, combs of all kinds, cologne, hair oil and pomatum, cigars, tobacco, and everything that is ever kept in a confectionary and variety store.

Brownell's Cooking Range.
THE subscriber has just completed the invention of a new Cooking Range, to which he invites the attention of the public. This Range possesses qualities for expeditious boiling and cooking that other Ranges do not, and it occupies but a small space of room.

Brownell's Cooking Range has six eight inch boilers, any two, or four of which, can be thrown into use, so as to admit of a large boiler; and it is provided with a set of rings so that any size furniture can be used on it. Its Oven is large, convenient of access, and having an upward draft, it bakes evenly with a small quantity of fuel.

One of these Ranges is in successful operation at the store of the subscriber, subject to the examination of the public, who are invited to call and take a look at it. WILLIAM BROWNELL.

Coggeshall & Bliss' Patent Cooking Range.

THE subscriber has just taken out letters patent for a new and beautiful cooking Range, to which they invite the attention of the public.

This Range may be set in the ordinary fire place, and by a simple, though effectual apparatus, the throat of the chimney may in an instant of time, be opened or closed, so that the heat in summer and the fumes from cooking at all times may escape through the chimney.

Wood or coal may be used, and the evil of smoking chimneys is completely remedied by its introduction.

This Range is so constructed that it takes up but a small space, and yet it contains all the qualities of those which take up double the amount; and it being constructed as it is, the Boilers are brought in close proximity with the fire, and it consequently boils much sooner, and with a smaller amount of fuel, than the old fashioned Ranges, or cook stoves.

It contains five boilers, four of which may be converted into two, by taking out a cross piece, and thus will admit of two large boilers at the same time. It also contains an Oven 12 inches wide by 21 deep, which cannot be surpassed for baking.

The subscriber has one of these Ranges in operation at his store, where the public are invited to call and examine it, and if they will, they must at once discover its utility. He also keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Parlor, Office, and Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, &c., &c.

IF Rev. B. HIBBARD'S Vegetable and Anti-Bilious FAMILY PILLS are not found to be the most convenient, the best physic you ever tried, and fully equal to any recommendation of them, you do not find that one of these pills does more good than four to six of any other kind, every agent stands ready to receive the empty boxes and refund the money.

These Pills are recommended as being without an equal in all Bilious attacks affections of the Liver, the Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels, caused by taking cold, or obstructed perspiration. They carry off the bile, cleanse the stomach and bowels, and re-open the closed pores of the body, thereby letting out the insensible perspiration through its accustomed channels, and relieving at once the internal organs. Also in old chronic affections, as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, &c.—Mind the Directions, which go with each box.

Every agent has circulars of these Pills to give away.

Half a Pill is the usual dose, though some require One Pill, or even more. Children of one year and over, one quarter of a pill, of 7 years and over, half a Pill. These Pills are purely VEGETABLE, and may be taken under all circumstances, without regard to drinks or diet.
